

Guidelines for EGS elective approval

EGS electives must engage with issues of gender, sexuality, race, or ethnicity in a critical manner. The course must examine the social and/or historical construction of categories like race or gender and investigate how such categories relate to structures of power, whether social, economic, or political.

Students seeking course approval should contact Dr. Julie Barst or Dr. Sheila Nowinski.